5. His glorious rule shall be
 Unending and unbroken.
 The sceptre of His might,
 Of peace shall be the token.
 Ye nations shout for joy;
 His praise let all proclaim.
 Let all the earth bring forth
 The honor due His name.

6. The angel host on high
 Doth sing His praise in cadence,
 With cherub's mighty power,
 With seraph's purest radiance.
 The choir with golden harps
 Beside the crystal sea
 Doth raise the glad new song:
 "The Lamb's high praise sing we."

7. Four beings 'round the throne,
 The elders there before them,
 Exalt God and the Lamb,
 His glory speading o'er them,
 Before Him cast their crowns,
 Fall down and Him adore,
 Who saith: "I was, I am,
 And shall be evermore."

8. Glory to God on high,
 To Father, Son and Spirit,
 Whose faithful children all
 The Kingdom shall inherit.
 The host of Thine elect,
 The heavens broad and free,
 Praise Thee, great Trinity,
 Through all eternity.
