

31. JESUS, OUR PRIEST AND KING

28, 32, 94, 186.

1. God, the Fa - ther of our Sav - iour, Who in
2. Now Thy throne stands high in heav - en, King o'er 3. Dom - in - ate Thy ad - ver - sa - ries; Hold Thy 4. Then shall Zi - on bear Thee child - ren, An un - heav - en has His throne, Is the source of ev - 'ry mul - ti - tude; Thou shalt rule till scep - tre, keep Thy vows! May Thy church, the count - ed mul - ti - tude, Freed from sor - row all cre - a - tion, Or - i - gin of life a - lone.

all op - pon - ents At Thy feet shall lie sub - dued.
mount of Zi - on, Be Thy roy - al treas - ure house.
and af - flic - tion, And with won - drous grace en - dued,

He said to His Son, Christ Je - sus, Ev - 'ry foe shall fear and trem - ble,
When Thy vict - 'ry is com - plet - ed
As the plen - teous dew of morn - ing,

"On my throne which nev - er ceas - es Sit Thou, 'til Thy When Thy host Thou wilt as - sem - ble, And in glo - rious And Thy foes an - ni - hil - at - ed, Then shall we in Strong in might of Thine a - dorn - ing; Since the strife is foes shall be Made a foot - stool un - to Thee."

 vic - to - ry Shalt put on Thy maj - es - ty.
 ho - li - ness Wor - ship Thee with joy and praise.
 o'er, they sing Joy - ful in e - ter - nal spring.

5. Verily our God hath spoken,
 And His promise He will hold.
 Lord, Thou art a Priest forever,
 As Melchizedek of old.
 Thou shalt be a High Priest ever,
 Prince of Peace, the only Saviour;
 Yea, Thou shalt in majesty King and Priest and Prophet be.

6. Thy work is to bless Thy people
 From the Holy Place above, Granting grace to all believers,
 Who are praising God in love.
 Since Thy lifeblood Thou hast given,
 Opening the way to heaven,
 He who now repents shall live,
 If he truly doth believe.

7. When the Lord brings all to judgment
 And avenges every wrong,
 When He humbles all the haughty, Breaking Satan's power strong,
 Then will Jesus' crowns be gleaming Far beyond man's fondest dreaming,
 And His people's joy will be
 Him to serve eternally!