5. Hallelujah! Oh, what glory!
 Oh, what depth of love we trace,
 When we see the heart of Jesus,
 Who redeemed our guilty race;
 Now He, King of all the spirits,
 Is our Father, dear to us
 Though invisible, our Master
 Yet is truly near to us.

8. Prince of peace! O let Thy concord
 Find in us a welcome warm!
 Love, O let us ne'er grow weary
 Thy blest service to perform.
 Naught can ease our earthly burden
 And our weariness remove
 In our warfare 'gainst the evil,
 As the power of Thy love.

6. O Thou gracious friend, unite us
 As Thy consecrated band;
 And, as was Thy last instruction,
 May in fervent love we stand!
 Do Thou join in sacred nearness
 With Thyself and with Thy fold
 All who see Thy light and clearness
 And Thy glory do behold.

9. Love, since thou hast then commanded
 That in love we should be rife,
 O revive each drooping spirit,
 Bring the dying back to life!
 Light the flames of love undying
 That each one may plainly see:
 We, as of one tribe and family
 To one Lord devoted be.

7. Thus Thy pray'r to God the Father
 Its fulfillment shall behold,
 When all those whom Thou hast chosen
 In His love He would enfold.
 As Thou art with them united
 They also as one should be
 In true love should serve each other,
 Finding joy in unity.

10. Let us then be so united
 As Thou with the Father art,
 That not one of Thy weak members
 Here on earth shall stand apart.
 From the flames of Thy own burning
 May our light partake its glow;
 And that we are Thy disciples
 All the world may surely know.
