5. Baptized am I; now may
 This truth the whole world ponder.
 I live no more as they
 Who in deep darkness wander;
 Baptism urges me
 That I by constant prayer
 Resist the enemy
 With power, everywhere.
6. Baptized am I; now shall
 No wayward thought of erring
 Cast o'er my heart a spell,
 My soul to evil snaring.
 For what may tempt my heart,
 And every sinful pride,
 Upon Thy cross, O Lord,
 Shall hence be crucified.
7. Now grant to me Thy power
 So that I may not waver,
 And bless me every hour,
 O my beloved Saviour!
 Thus shall I safely fare
 Upon this blessed way,
 And reach the city where
 Thy peace shall reach for aye.
